France / Brazil

Pedro Henrique Chaves is a writer-director from Brazil. Through his acting background, he found love in filmmaking and discovered how great it is to make relatable stories to thrill the audience. Since he was 17, he has been directing and shooting in different countries, including Brazil, Thailand, and Canada. Its goal is to work on audiovisual projects, mainly fiction, to learn more, connect with new people and collaborate with different teams in a cohesive and precise way. Pedro makes his passion a career, which motivates him to seek more experience on set and tell new stories, always focused on fulfilling his goals and giving his best.
